

How To Title An Essay About A Book

Exploring the Themes of Power and Corruption in George Orwell's 1984

In this example, the title gives the reader an idea of what the essay will be about (themes of power and corruption in George Orwell's novel 1984). The title is centered on the page and written in title case capitalization, as per Chicago style guidelines. It is also concise and informative, giving the reader a clear idea of what the essay will cover.