

Literary Analysis Essay Outline Example 3

Topic: Character Development in "To Kill a Mockingbird"

Introduction

- Hook: Childhood experiences often shape moral understanding.
- Background: Harper Lee tells the story through Scout Finch's perspective.
- Thesis: Scout's experiences with prejudice, justice, and empathy contribute to her moral growth throughout the novel.

Body Paragraph 1: Learning About Prejudice

- Topic Sentence: Scout begins to understand racial discrimination.
- Evidence: Tom Robinson's trial.
- Analysis: She recognizes unfair treatment within society.

Body Paragraph 2: Lessons from Atticus

- Topic Sentence: Atticus teaches Scout empathy and integrity.
- Evidence: Advice about seeing things from others' perspectives.
- Analysis: These lessons influence her moral decisions.

Body Paragraph 3: Understanding Boo Radley

- Topic Sentence: Scout's perception of Boo Radley evolves significantly.
- Evidence: Boo's protection of the children.
- Analysis: She learns not to judge others based on rumors.

Conclusion

- Restate thesis.
- Summarize Scout's development.
- Highlight the novel's message about empathy and justice.