

Ke Huy Quan Acceptance Speech

Thank you so much, Academy. This is truly a dream come true.

I want to start by thanking the amazing director and producer of "The Forgotten Hero," who gave me the opportunity to bring this character to life. Your vision and passion for this project was contagious, and I'm so grateful to have been a part of it.

I also want to thank my fellow cast members, who inspired me every day with their talent and dedication to their craft. This award is as much theirs as it is mine.

Of course, I can't forget to thank my family and friends, who have supported me from the very beginning. You believed in me when no one else did, and for that I'm eternally grateful.

But most importantly, I want to dedicate this award to all the forgotten heroes out there, the people who have dedicated their lives to helping others and making the world a better place, often without recognition or reward. Your sacrifices have not gone unnoticed, and I hope this award brings attention to the incredible work you do.

And to all the kids out there who dream of being up here one day, keep chasing your dreams. Anything is possible if you believe in yourself and work hard.

Thank you again, Academy, for this incredible honor. This is truly a moment I will never forget.
