

Sheryl Lee Ralph Acceptance Speech at emmys

Ladies and gentlemen, distinguished guests and colleagues, it is truly an honor to be standing before you tonight as the recipient of this prestigious award. I am deeply grateful to the Academy for recognizing my work and the work of my fellow cast and crew members on our show.

I would like to start by thanking my family for their unwavering support throughout my career. Their love and encouragement have been my driving force, and I could not have achieved this without them.

I also want to extend my gratitude to the producers, directors, writers, and crew members who have worked tirelessly to bring our show to life. This award is a testament to your hard work and dedication, and I am grateful to have had the opportunity to work with such talented and passionate individuals.

I would be remiss if I did not thank my fellow cast members, who have become like family to me over the years. Your talent, passion, and support have been instrumental in making our show the success it is today.

But most of all, I want to thank the fans. Without you, none of this would be possible. Your love and support for our show have been truly overwhelming, and it is an honor to know that our work has touched so many lives. Your passion for storytelling inspires me to continue to create meaningful work that resonates with people.

In closing, I want to say that this award is not just for me, but for all the people who have supported and believed in me throughout my career. It is a testament to the power of hard work, dedication, and perseverance. I am truly humbled and grateful, and I thank you all from the bottom of my heart.
